

Gord Bowes / The Age Dispatch

Antiques road show: Connie Wiersma of Mt. Brydges brought her great-grandmother's wristwatch to the West Middlesex Antiquities Appraisal and Heirloom Market at the Caradoc Community Centre on Saturday in Mt. Brydges. Appraiser Jim Poag of Poag Jewellers in Strathroy told her the gold-filled watch pre-dated the First World War and was valued at around $100 in its present condition. The event was presented by the Strathroy and District Chamber of Commerce and Ontario Tourism in celebration of Heritage Week. Several hundred people attended the event.